The sample and the methodology The total number Aleppo Al-Hasakah 10,189 persons Al-Raqqa Lattakia Idlib Map of the distribution Dier Al-Zour Hama Tartus 0 - 57Palmyra Homs 58 - 243 244-550 Damascus Daraa Al-Suwayda 1073 - 2520 Distribution of the sample Distribution of the sample according to gender according to regions 79.30% Damascus Damascus countryside 20.70% Aleppo Homs

When Survival Choices Vanish; Coercive Elements of the "Reconciliation Agreements" Why was staying not an option?

What prompted you to decide to leave?

What would have happened to you in case you did not leave?

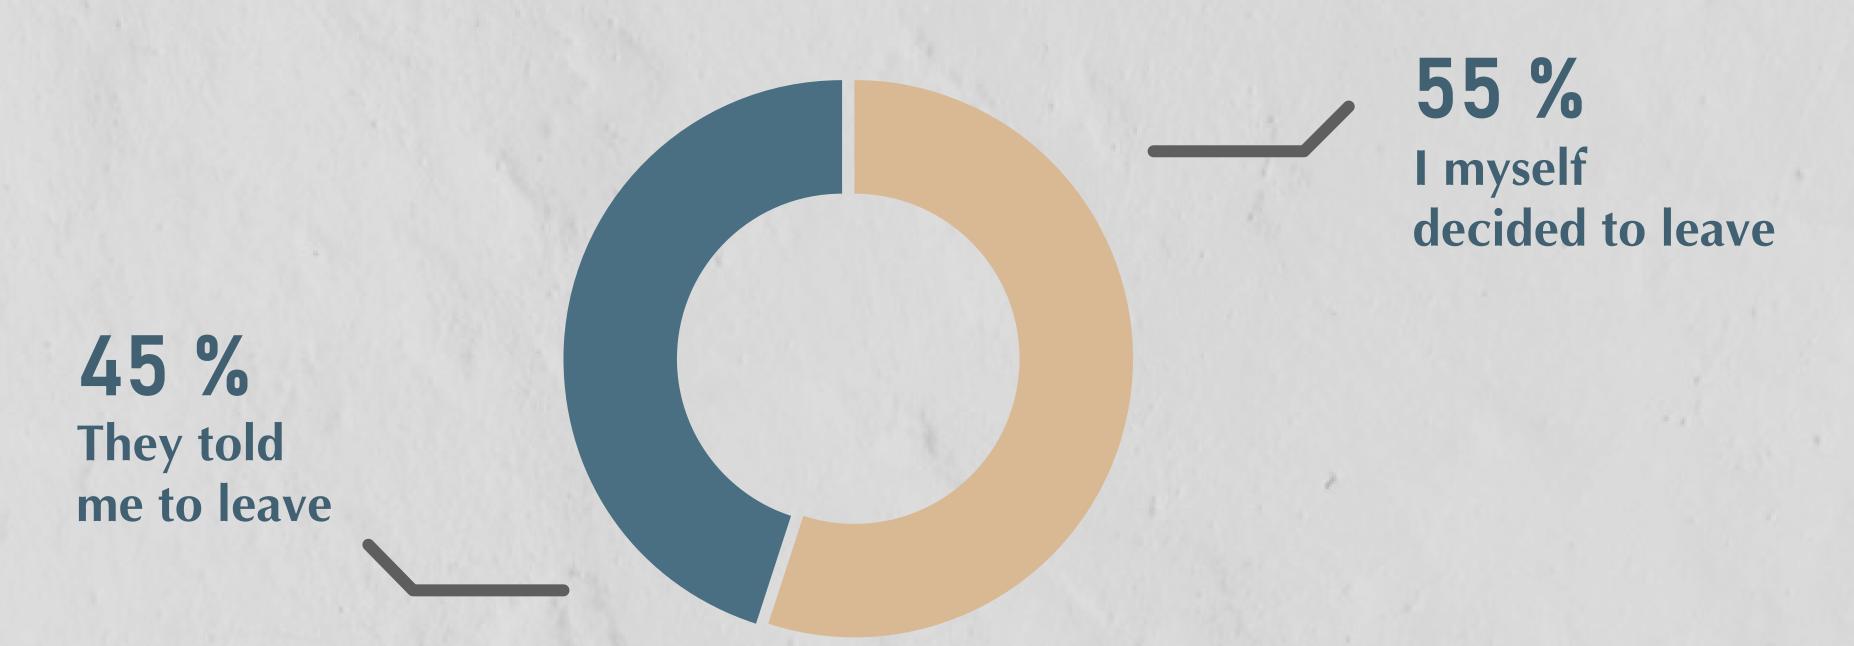

When Survival Choices Vanish; Coercive Elements of the "Reconciliation Agreements" Why was staying not an option?

Did you, yourself, decide to leave or were you ordered to do that?

Did displacement target a specific group of the residents?

No 75% Yes 25%

Who ordered you to leave?

When Survival Choices Vanish; Coercive Elements of the "Reconciliation Agreements" The role played by displaced people in negotiations and "reconciliation" agreements

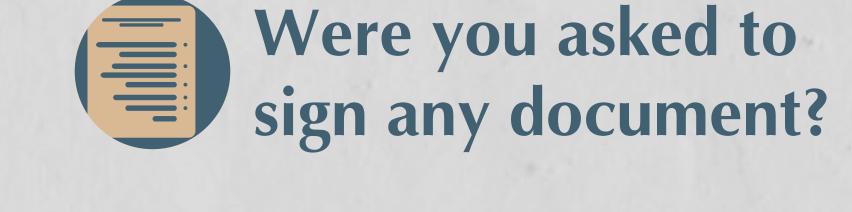

Did you participate in selecting the negotiators in your region before displacement?

1% Yes 99% No

How did you know of the provisions of the agreement?

- They were read publicly 29 % They were published on social media They were given to you personally Other than that 13 %
- How many days were you given to leave?

When Survival Choices Vanish; Coercive Elements of the "Reconciliation Agreements" The role played by displaced people in negotiations and "reconciliation" agreements

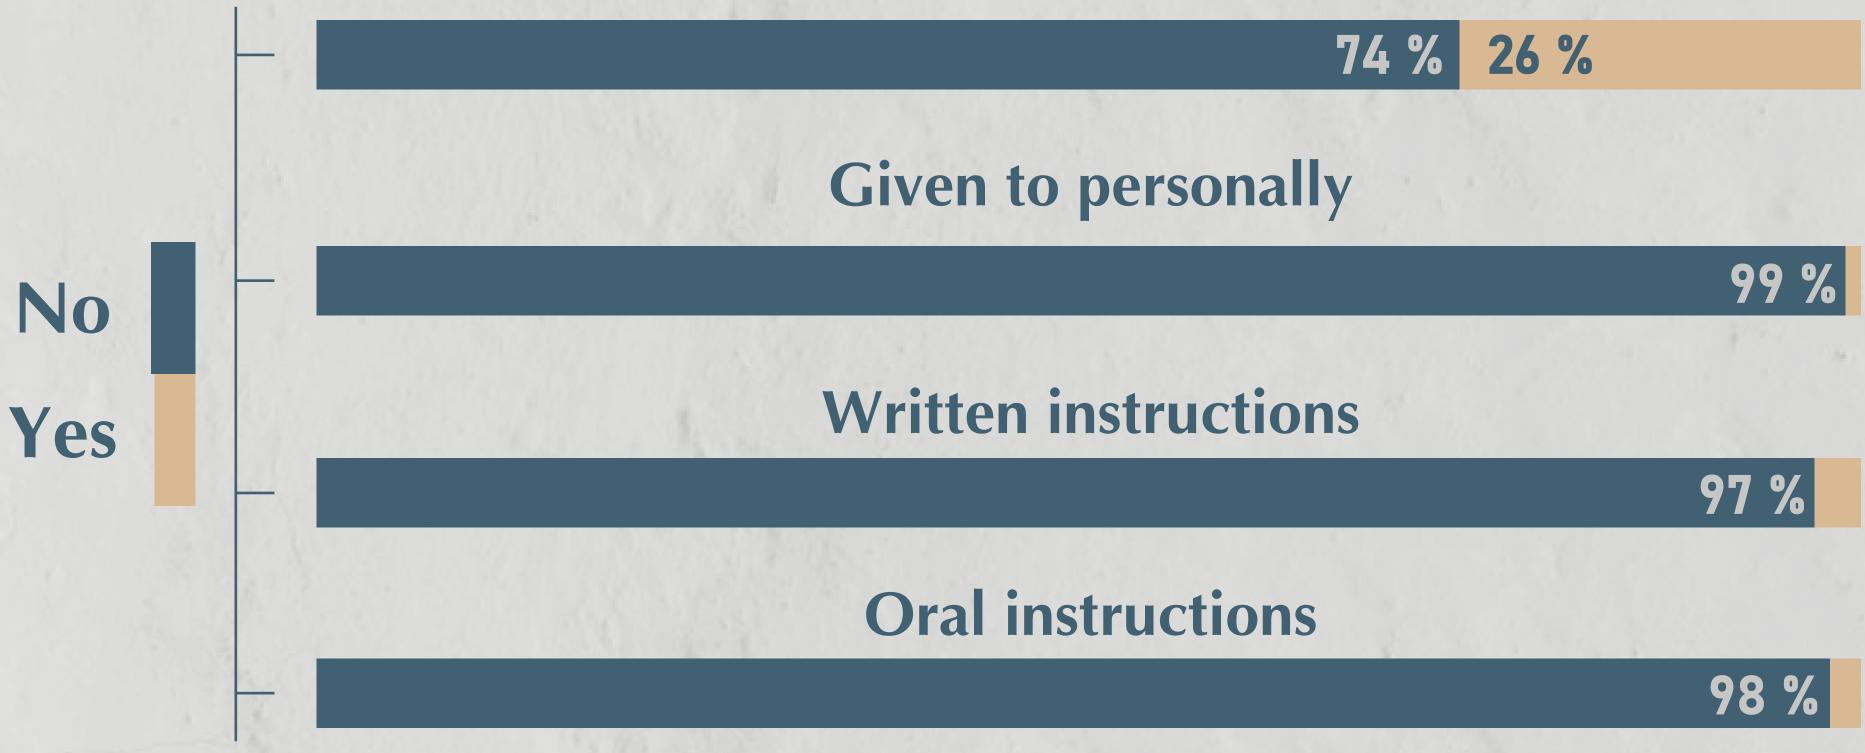

Did you receive any instructions before your departure?

•	Yes	28 %
•	No		72 %

What is the nature of the instructions you received?

An alternative place to move to in the instructions

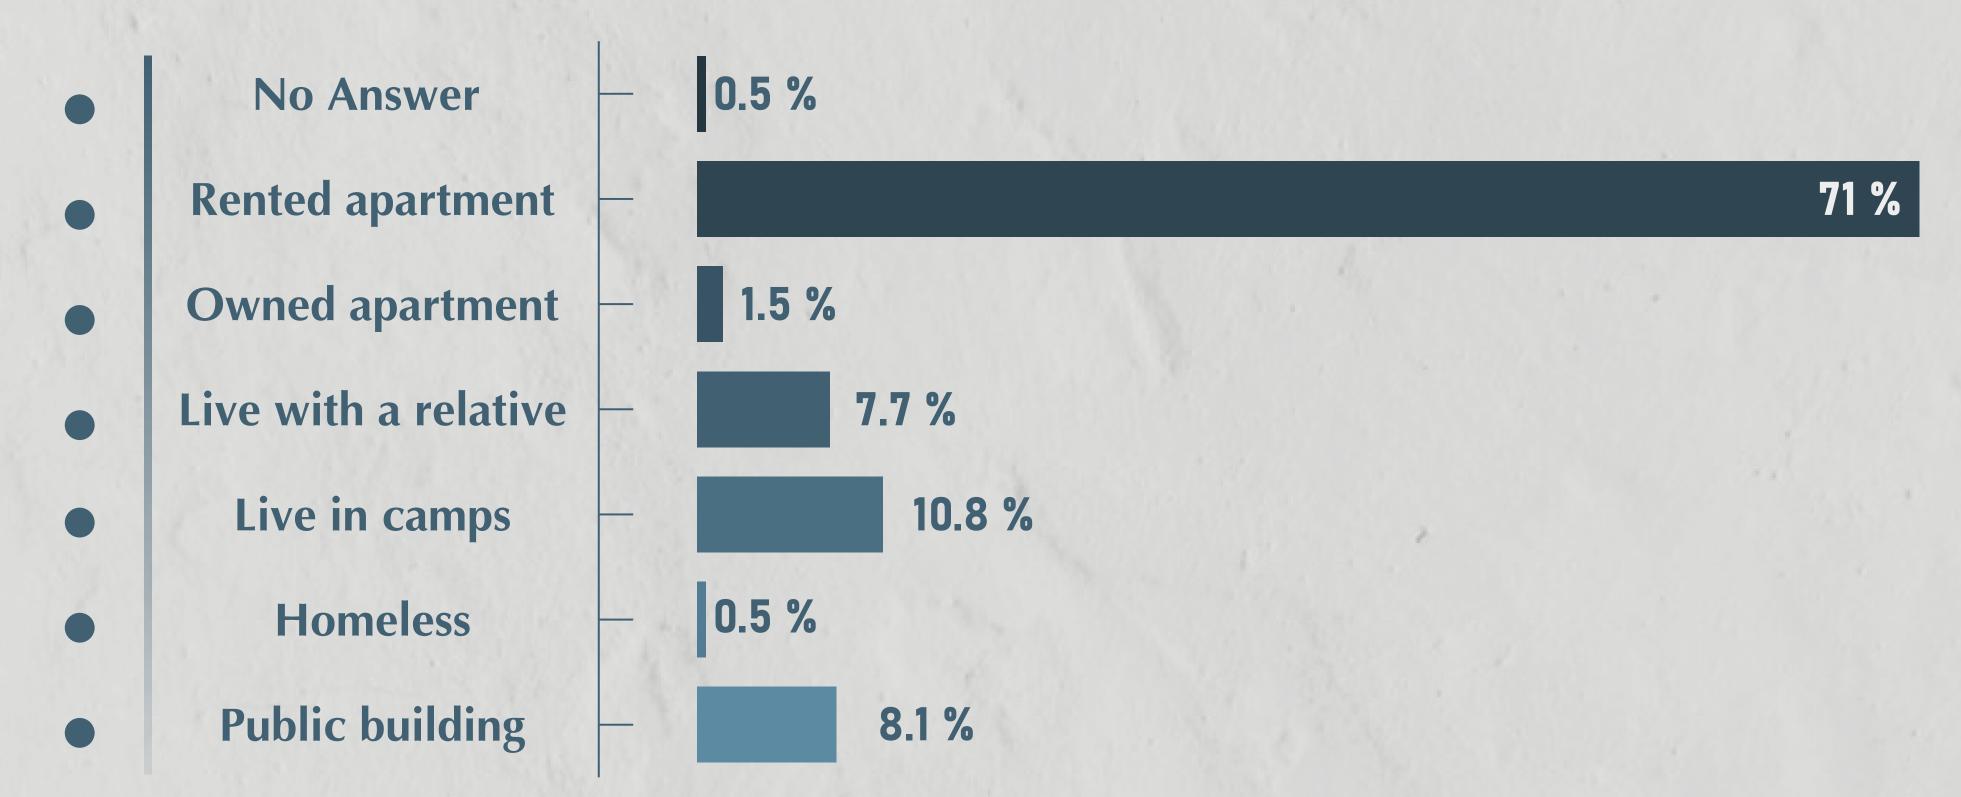

THE SECOND CHAPTER The New Home: Living Conditions, Social Adaptation, and Future Horizons
The Shelter and Basic Commodities and Services offered in The New Home

What type of housing do you live in?

How do you evaluate the housing where you live?

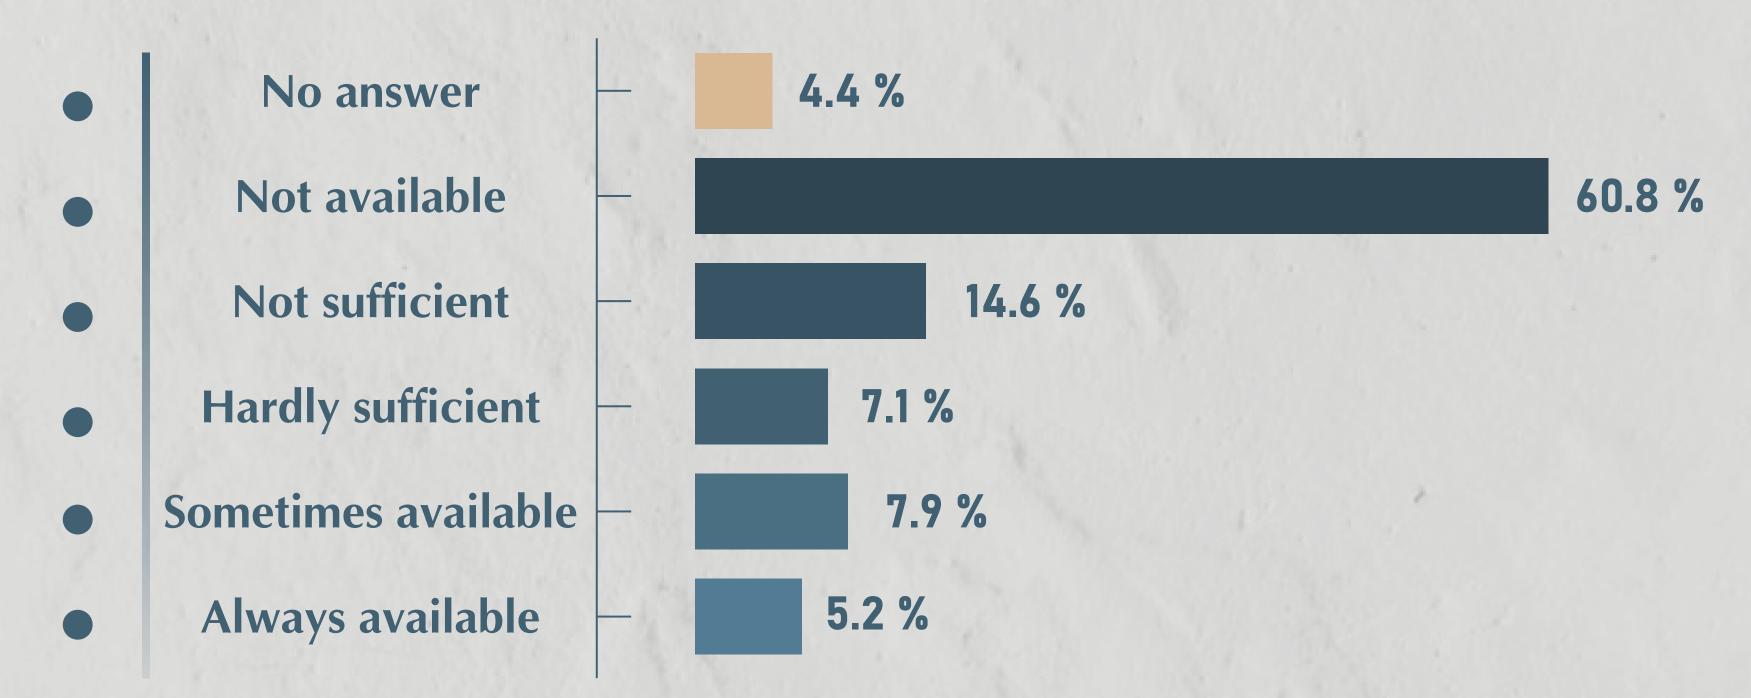

THE SECOND CHAPTER The New Home: Living Conditions, Social Adaptation, and Future Horizons
The Shelter and Basic Commodities and Services offered in The New Home

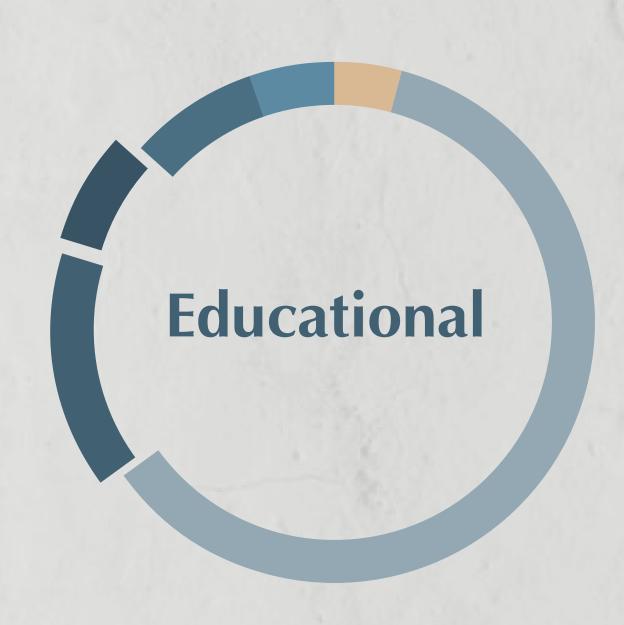

How do you evaluate the availability of legal services?

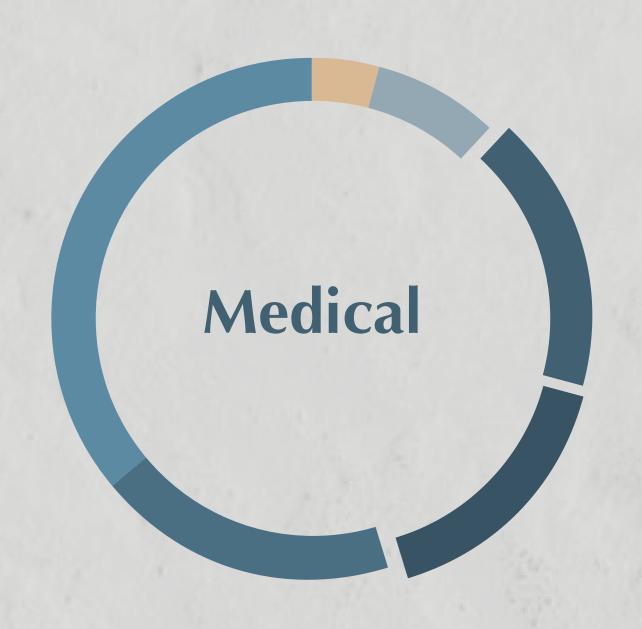

How do you evaluate the availability of medical and educational services?

4.4 %	No answer	4.4 %
7.7 %	Not available	60.8 %
17.2 %	Not sufficient	14.6 %
16.0 %	Hardly sufficient	7.1 %
Land Galler
18.8 %	Sometimes available	7.9 %
	A STATE OF THE STA	A STORE STATE
35.9 %	Always available	5.2 %

THE SECOND CHAPTER The New Home: Living Conditions, Social Adaptation, and Future Horizons Economic activity and efforts of humanitarian responses in the new home

Is work your main source of income?

What are the sources of income on which the unemployed depend?

Yes		No
14.6 %	Relatives abroad	85.4 %
33.6 %	Aids	66.4 %
10.9 %	Personal savings	89.1 %
5.6 %	Hosting communities	94.4 %
11.1 %	Other	88.9 %

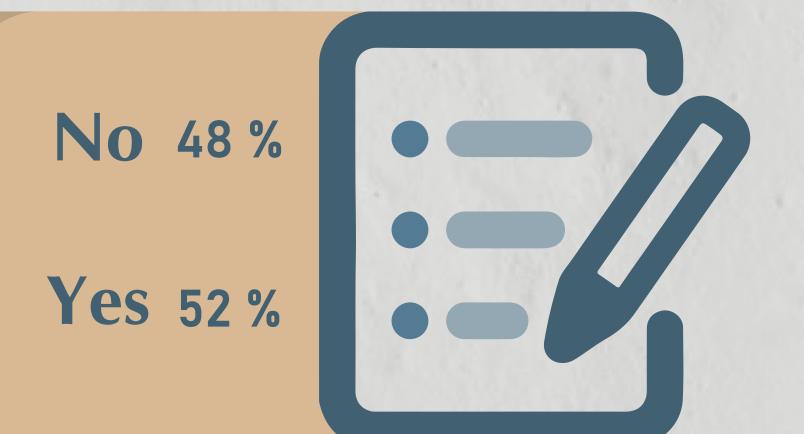

THE SECOND CHAPTER The New Home: Living Conditions, Social Adaptation, and Future Horizons Economic activity and efforts of humanitarian responses in the new home

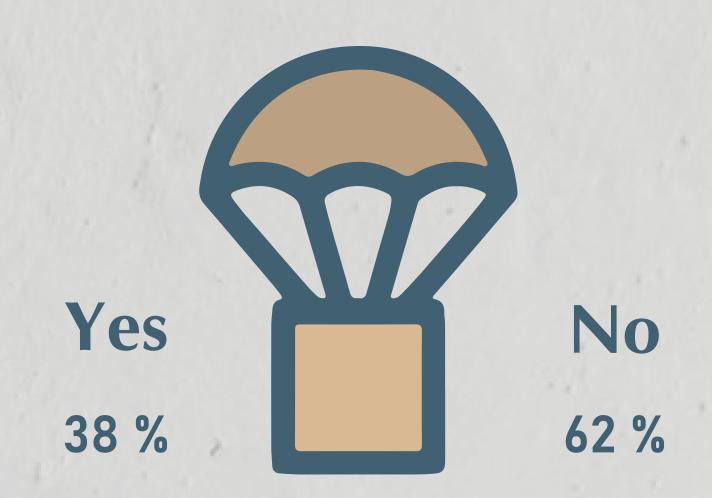

Did any entity register you?

Do you receive humanitarian aid?

مركز الشرق للسياسات

Which entity registered you?

	Committee/ Body	34.0 %
•	Society/Aid organization	13.5 %
	Local council	38.5 %
•	The Turkish government	2.0 %
	Other	3.0 %
	AFAD	5.5 %
	Syrian red Crescent	0.5 %
	Camp directorate	2.0 %

Office of Statistics & Documentation 1.0 %

GRIENT POLICY CENTER CE

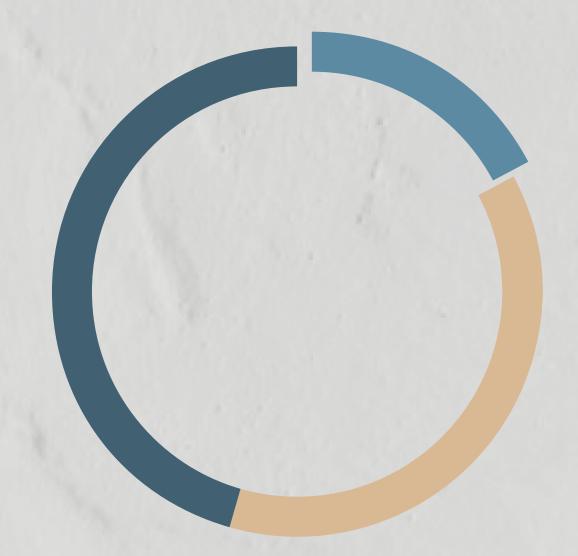

THE SECOND CHAPTER The New Home: Living Conditions, Social Adaptation, and Future Horizons Economic activity and efforts of humanitarian responses in the new home

How do you evaluate the overall quality of life in your new place?

- Bad48 %
- Very bad 18 %
- Satisfactory39 %

How do you evaluate your current living conditions and the security situation comparison with the period that preceded your departure from your habitual home?

4.4 %	No answer	4.4 %
3.4 %	Much worse	7.5 %
11.6 %	Worse	28.8 %
12.2 %	The same	23.6 %
49.7 %	Better	27.5 %
18.9 %	Much better	8.3 %

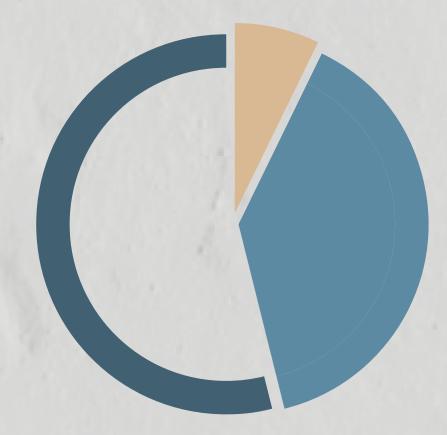

THE SECOND CHAPTER The New Home: Living Conditions, Social Adaptation, and Future Horizons Survey of the relations of the displaced with the hosting communities

How do you evaluate the relation between you and the hosting community?

- Good or very good
- 39 % Neither good nor bad
- 7 % Bad or very bad

Do you feel that you are accepted in your new community?

Accepted or fully accepted 61 %

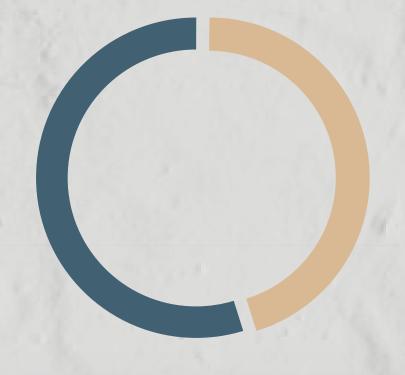

Relatively accepted 32 %

Have you experienced any discrimination towards you since your arrival?

How do you evaluate your present status in terms of vulnerability or being more subjected to abuse compared with your status before displacement?

Rarely or have never been subject to discrimination

Have become subject to abuse

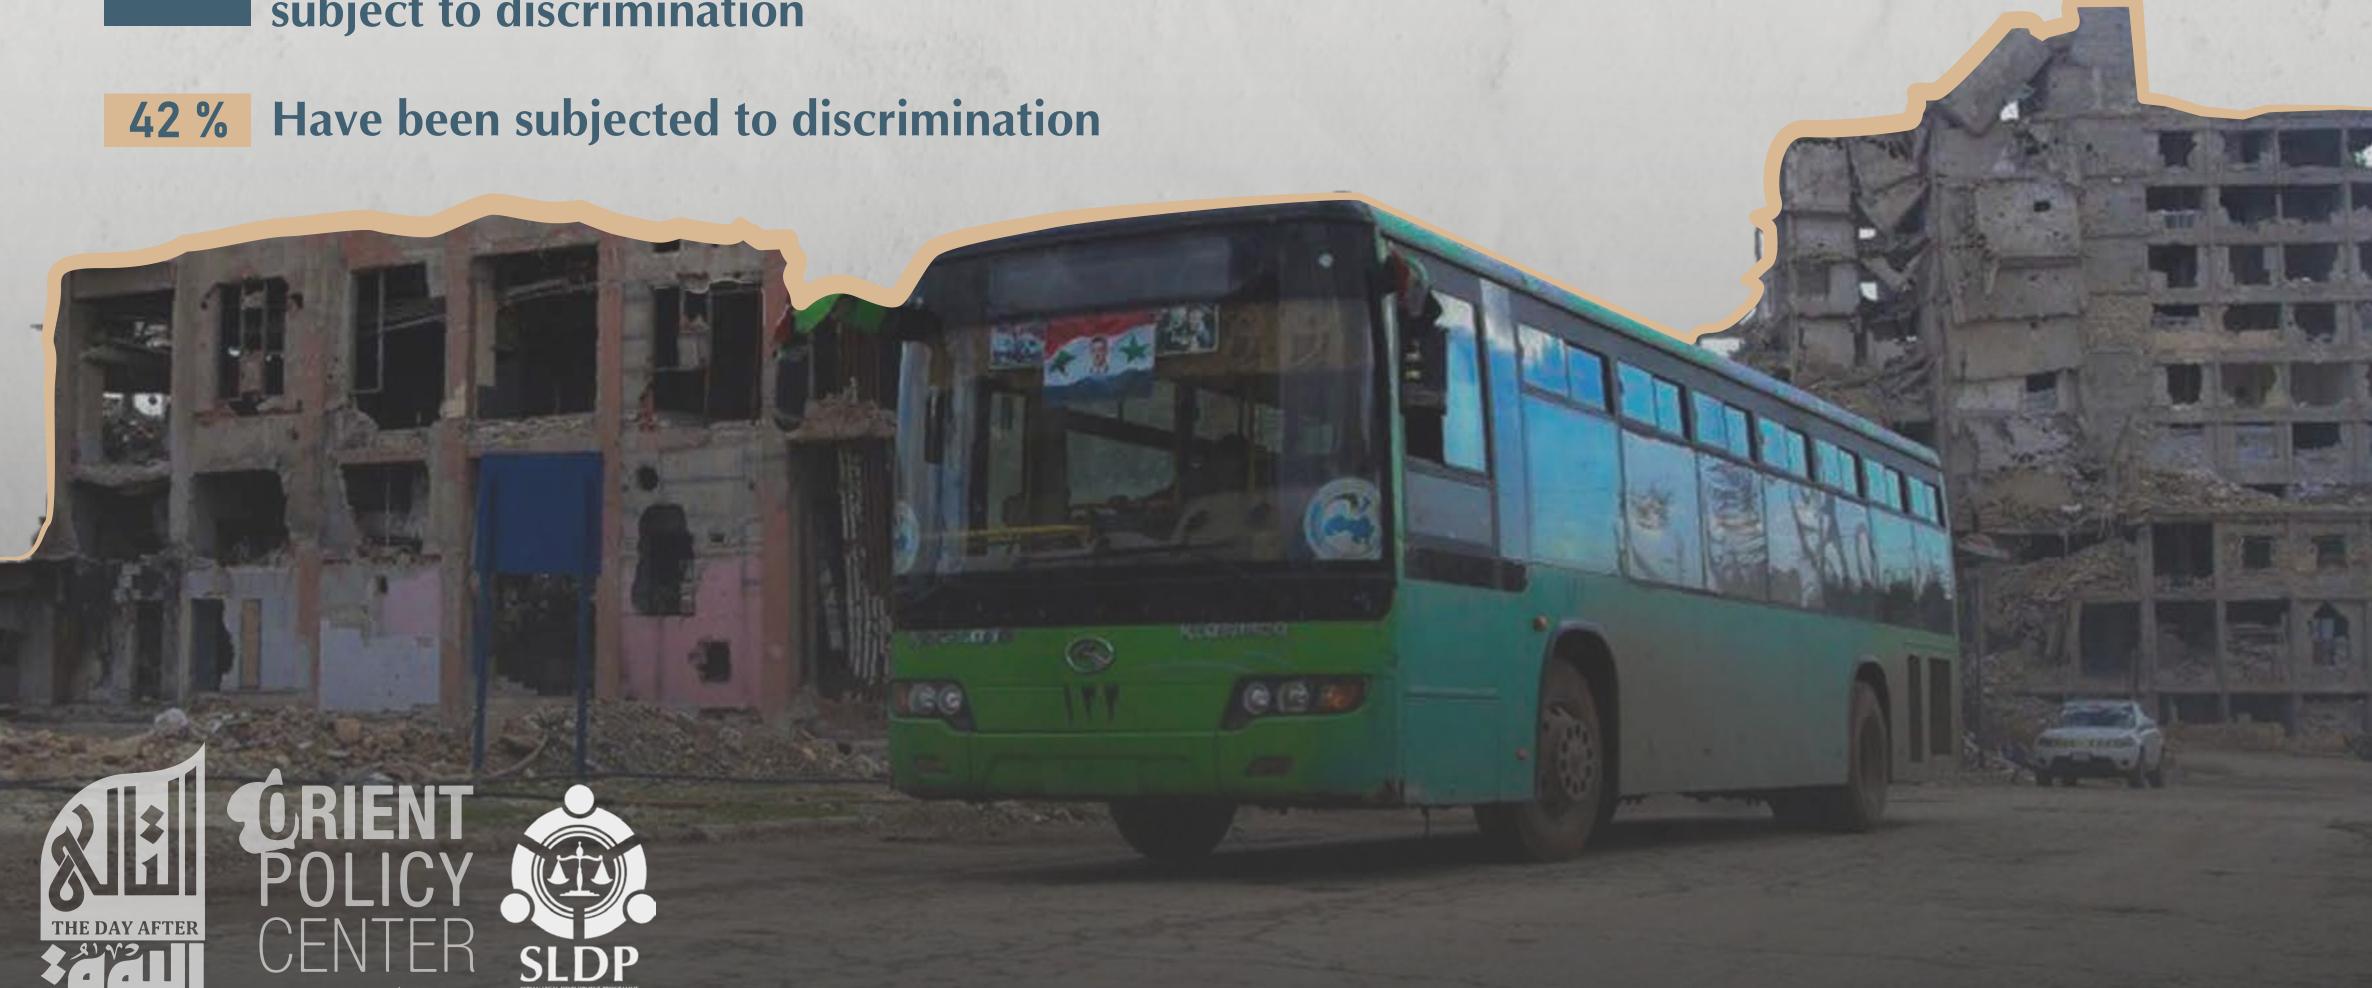

Did not affect them

Better

39 %

26 %

31 %

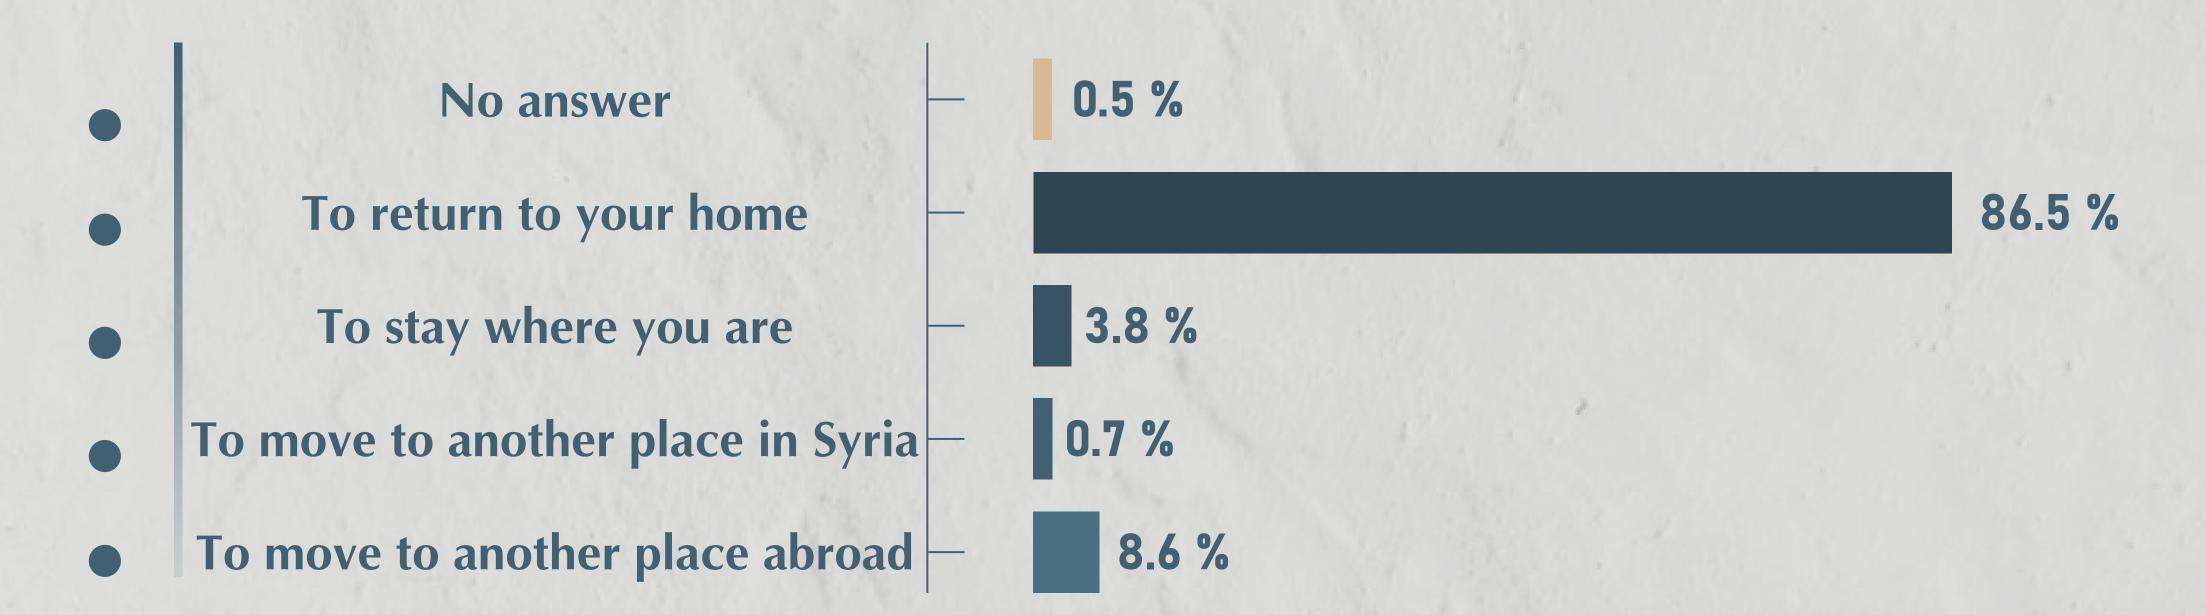

THE SECOND CHAPTER The New Home: Living Conditions, Social Adaptation, and Future Horizons
The major factors affecting the future of the displaced

What do you want to happen in the future?

What kind of compensation do you expect?

Retrieving my property and return	20 %
Be compensated by money or similar properties	11.3 %
Reparation settlement	15.5 %
Symbolic compensations	6.4 %
Official apologies	8.2 %
I don't know. No answer	34.3 %
Other	4.4 %

THE THIRD CHAPTER: Forced displacement and the Right to Housing and Land and Real Estate Ownership in Syria Real estates owned by the displaced in their habitual regions:

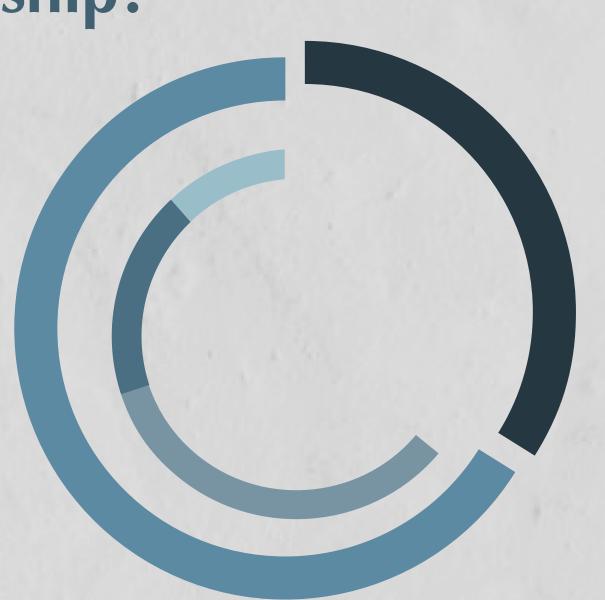

Do you own real estate in your habitual region?

Yes		62 %
No	38 %

Do you have a proof of your ownership?

- Have documents
- Do not have documents
- 78 % Destroyed by bombing
- 12 % Lost
- Basically, no documents

What is the current status of your properties?

